Background:

To communicate the details of manufacturing site of the products, change has been done in the Certificate of Quality (CoQ) and Certificate of Sterility (CoS) of mdi products. The address of manufacturing site will be specified at the bottom of the CoQ/CoS of the product. This change is only a paper change.

Need for Change:

For better control on materials/intermediates (to be used in final product), the current industry practices require procurement of materials only from the approved vendors. The vendors are approved considering different manufacturing sites of single vendor as separate vendors for better control and traceability. To maintain the procurement of material from approved vendors, the customers require details of manufacturing site along with the receipt of products. Currently, the address of corporate site is mentioned on the Certificate of Quality and Certificate of Sterility. This makes it difficult for the customer to trace the manufacturing site. Hence, to improve the traceability, it has been decided to incorporate the address of the manufacturing site on the CoQ/CoS of mdi products instead of corporate site address.
